the players: the 10 planets

Part One - The Lead Roles

The Sun

The Sun is the center of our solar system. It generously shares its radiance with the other planets. In Astrology, the Sun is the heart of the chart. It points to ways that your relationship needs to confidently shine. Keep the fires of your Sun burning brightly and proudly together. Love will follow. Happiness will fill your minds, bodies and souls. The Sun stands for ego needs, will power and creative vitality. Forget your own Sun signs for the moment. Your shared Sun sign could be different than your individual Sun signs.

Remember that we are talking about your combined Sun. It is the fusion of your two hearts.

This relationship's Sun is in Capricorn (This shows a strong karmic tie due to the energy of Saturn, the Karma planet. There is a fate connection here.)

A Sign is a psychological process through which a planet operates. As a couple, being solarized through the sign Capricorn points to a durable partnership. The keyword for Capricorn in traditional astrology is "I use". This means you like to put into action what you know. Each of you may enhance the strength of the other. A shared sense of responsibility in dealing with life circumstances emanates from the core of your relationship. You possess a keen sense of reality. There is a no nonsense tone surrounding you.

Each of you wants this relationship to be clearly defined from the beginning. Managing your time efficiently comes easily. There is tremendous follow through from start to finish. You expect to be supported in the roles you choose to act out, whether this is in the form of career, parent or civic leader. A commitment to the love you cherish encourages intimacy. Trust will come with the passing of time. Individual self-reliance can combine nicely with shared leadership. Both of you prove trustworthy in each other's eyes. Peers may admire your determination to work through problems. You may influence each other to delay in taking a risk until it is very safe to do so.

When the two of you make a major change, it can be done with tremendous conviction. Watch out for acting too controlling. It will cause barriers to surface between you. Be harder on the problems than on each other. Your serious sides may need occasional lightening-up! Be careful about letting the feeling side of life become a stranger. Learn to delegate some responsibility away from the relationship. Make sure there is time for each other. Active and ambitious lives outside of the home are very possible. A hard-working ethic may be a shared value. Be careful that neither one of you is a constant workaholic. Paying some attention to your private life will ensure balance. A fear of rejection or commitment will create considerable distance. Learn how to make each other feel comfortable. Each of you may need some solitude to maintain perspective.

Rigidity could be a nemesis. Learn to be flexible even when it is difficult. Leave room for new growth in the relationship. It is okay to enjoy the stability of the past. You probably have a respect for history and tradition. Do not fear change. See it as a new opportunity.

Your creative vitality can guide you to accomplish much together. Your focus on being a successful couple is tremendous. You take responsibility more serious than most. Discipline is likely something worth developing in your eyes. You can be the rock of Gibraltar in each other's lives. Acknowledge your partner's attributes and your days together will blossom.

This relationship's Sun is in the Tenth House (This again shows a strong karmic tie due to the energy of Saturn through the 10th House, each of you brings social status to the other.)

A determination for success is accentuated. You can instill ambition and great momentum in each other! It is possible to happily share ownership in a business or other investments. You can support each other's hope to receive recognition for your abilities. You influence one another to achieve great things in life.

Your life in the public sector may be demanding and at the same time offer growth. You can fill a variety of roles, whether it is in the form of parent, job, civic leader, etc. Sharing responsibility in your relationship gives you a sense of confirmation about each other. Making time for one another creates intimacy.

Friends and strangers will likely see you as people that know what they want in life. Your lives are based on a clear commitment. Your public and private lives can be balanced with good management. Remember to be fair to each other when life gets stressful or demanding. A lack of adaptability can cause emotional distance.

Too much competition within the partnership can create instability. Respect for each other's leadership ability is a stabilizing factor. Take turns being the boss. You are a serious couple when it comes to making your ideas become a reality. You don't like people wanting to waste your time. Discipline is something you value. Make time for each other. The temptation to compulsively work on individual challenges can distract you from your relationship. Give one another the attention and emotional support needed. If you do, you will have a friend for life!

This relationship's Moon is in the Fourth House (Another connection through Cancer energy; Cancer is the 4th sign of the home and family. One of you may want to share a home (move in) together almost immediately after meeting each other. It might help to take it slow.)

The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs with a special role serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world. The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. Challenges motivate you to grow and show your capabilities.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united. Think of the Part of Fortune as the potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences.

Neptune

There is a planet that adds a mystical tone to our lives. Neptune defies being labeled as part of the physical world. It is our spiritual awareness on one hand and desire to escape from earthly reality on the other. Both are possible! In mythology, Neptune was Poseidon, god of the oceans. This water god represents the strong emotions that love activates. Do the two of you feel any common ground when it comes to your highest beliefs? If you do, it might be associated with this planet's symbolism.

Faith is a Neptune theme. Neptune's sign and house will point to the ideals and causes you share. Your intuitive insights into one another can also be revealed here. Shadows of Neptune are denial and guilt. Keep these tendencies in check. It will ensure greater clarity and closeness. If you don't, it can feel like you are eating chicken broth with a fork. Aesthetic interests are another part of Neptune's world. Your shared interests in art and music can come through loud and clear.

This relationship's Neptune is in Scorpio

You may not be as idealistic as other couples. The bottom line of what you both desire is usually in your line of vision. You can still dream! Be careful what you want from life. You are likely to get it! Your relationship was born passionate. A strong sensual connection is likely. You can influence each other to be secretive. Trust comes as you put some of your cards face up. When you have few hidden agendas life will be more fun together. Your material expectations probably need to be kept reasonable. When you put your money and business smarts together, you can increase each other's wealth.

People may see you as a couple with magic in their fingertips. Your hard work might be perceived as effortless by others. Emotions are intense with both of you. Your bond can be strong. A shared interest in the mysteries of life can be shown. You can show great concentration when you dive into a serious area of study. The realization that you can rely on your partner is a stabilizing factor.

This relationship's Neptune is in the Seventh House (This position indicates that strict honesty is required of both of you; Neptune may try to blur the lines of communication between you. Let there be no secrets regarding money or contact with past lovers. Be direct and hide nothing.)

You look for the best in one another. If you don't see perfection, stay calm. There are no perfect people. You bring out the relationship-orientation in each other. Sharing your lives with others rejuvenates your partnership. It even alleviates some of the pressure in trying to be "everything" packages for one another.

Watch out for indecision. You can carefully evaluate any option from at least two different takes. It will be like treading water if you sit idly for too long of a time period. Following a course of action may become necessary, rather than waiting past the chance to make the best of an opportunity. You can worry about editing the plan later, after the fog clears, or the more sound reasoning returns.

Your romantic views of life are a unifying factor. Creating stimulating experiences is comforting and exhilarating. Showing you care can go far in establishing harmony. You probably have mutual interests in art or music. When you first met you may have felt like you had found the ideal partner. There is much you will always dream of doing together.

In a perfect world, you might be soul-mates of unquestioning devotion. In the real one, you can be two lovers celebrating the memories of romantic adventures.

Pluto

Last, but not least, is a planet of mystery and intrigue, Pluto. You may get a message or two in this section about your shared psychological intensity. Pluto's sign and house point to our drives for power, passion and financial gain. A desire to get to know each other on the deepest of levels can be a Pluto theme. We must let go of a part of ourselves to be in a relationship. This scares some people and seems like a fair deal to others. What we cannot face as individuals sometimes will be brought to the surface in our interactions with a partner. Pluto's shadows center around jealousy and possessiveness. This planet teaches us that letting go and trusting one another are rewarding paths. Facing the tests of Pluto together is the breakfast of champions.

Don't push your own diet or health regimen on your partner. You will only meet with resistance. Suggestions that are meant to help each other work better than commandments. The two of you talk more clearly when not too exhausted or filled with worry. The timing of your conversations will prove to be as important as the content. You can brighten your partner's life with an impeccable desire to be there when needed. A spontaneous display of rationality in the midst of turbulence may be a shared talent.

Midheaven

Just as the Ascendant was described as a sign serving a special purpose, there is a sign referred to as the Midheaven, with a special mission of its own. This is the sign at the beginning of the 10th house of a chart. A palm reader can interpret the career line embedded in your hand. Think of the Midheaven or 10th house sign as a type of career line in your chart. How you two conduct business in the world and your work interests are shown here.

There needs to be a clear sense of responsibility and commitment. There may be a tradition one or both of you holds sacred. Allow for an occasional surprise to occur. There will be milestones to celebrate; creating happy memories to look back upon.

part three: planetary aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction.

The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely to be areas where you flow together without much effort. The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop a true understanding of how to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some key words in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other. Note that a planet might be involved in several different aspects. In other words, the planet is interfacing its energies with numerous other planets (or even with the Ascendant or Midheaven). A "heavily aspected planet" plays a key role in your relating to each other.

part four: the nodes of the moon

Do you sometimes wonder if it was fate or some other mysterious set of events that introduced the two of you? What attracted you the most to each other? Maybe it was a charismatic smile, the way you could talk, a physical attraction, or a shared sense of values. There is a multitude of possibilities you could name. The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity offering clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other.

Much of this link between your minds is probably on a subconscious level. The Nodes usually play an active part in our closest relationships. The longer we are in a relationship with a particular person, the more these two energies come into our conscious awareness. The Nodes represents a special way you can build your relationship together. They point to certain themes that must be nurtured. This helps keep weeds of discontent and frustration from growing. The Nodes are a path to solidifying your sense of closeness.

This relationship's Node is in Libra

You have a shared mission to take your beliefs and values out into the world. Relating to a wide variety of people plays a key role in your relationship. Each of you can enjoy the company of special peers. It is when mixing with the creative vitality of others that your own spirits feel uplifted. It may seem like the two of you were meant to become intertwined in the lives of interesting individuals and groups. You naturally complement one another. People expect you to exhibit confidence. Your social grace can be highly polished. Tact and diplomacy take you far. When your creative impulses get ignited, they can lead you to explore new potentials.

The trickster or hidden irrational tendencies take root when you fight compulsively for personal needs, ignoring those of your partner. This is a sure way to cause angry situations. You need to be direct and assertive. However, you will be happier when each of you respects the other's turf. You can be instantly courageous and daring together. People can marvel at how the two of you spontaneously mobilize toward what you want from life. Impatience is a testy subject--isn't it? When you listen to each other, a greater potential for cooperation results. You activate the warrior in one another. Charging ahead might require a bit of foresight. You are a high energy duo.

This relationship's Node is in the Seventh House (This shows a strong karmic tie due to the 7th House of marriage. Learning to compromise and be diplomatic in a relationship may be a key trait to learn.)

There is a calling to make key social contacts in your lives. The two of you have a free-spirited way of dancing in and out of various social circles. People can be energized with your upbeat energies. Your sense of diplomacy can be quite adept. Entertaining others is a shared source of joy. Your friends influence some of your key choices. You both can display common sense and poise in the midst of difficult times. Your resolve to be there for each other can make outside observers envious. A fondness for the same types of entertainment can make for exhilarating moments. You like to include others in your celebration of milestones.

Do you sometimes feel a mysterious pull to become self-absorbed? This may be a sudden impulse in either of you if you have not paid enough attention to your personal goals. Compulsive drives for attention, or losing sight of one another's needs will lead to friction. You influence each other to discover a deep sense of personal identity. When you allow for personal autonomy it does seem to make it easier to agree on joint decisions. Balancing social urges, with time just for the two of you is wise. Being assertive with each other is better than hiding your anger. Communicate with patience, and make few demands, as this is more likely to allow you to better understand one another.

astrologer's notes:

Dear Diane, this seems to be a fated or karmic relationship; you were bound to end up in each other's lives. You may have loved each other before in a past lifetime together, and have found each other again in order to complete the story and address expectations that were not addressed then. But because the Sun sign of this relationship is in Capricorn, each of you must be very careful about actions taken, good or bad, in the experience of love. Always do good in every situation, and lots of good will happen to you. Saturn, the ruler of Capricorn is a Karma planet, meaning it has rulership over doing good things or doing less than positive things. So, each of you has the responsibility to be honest to each other and always place your love for each other above your monetary assets, which you may be already doing, and that is excellent. This has more to do with your relationship as the years progress. This relationship can stand the test of time, there are strong marriage ties between you, but both of you will also have to learn the skills of patience and stability. This connection needs stability in all respects to stay alive and flourish.
